JUSTICE ANN A. SCOTT TIMMER

Arizona Supreme Court

Ann A. Scott Timmer was appointed to the Arizona Supreme Court in 2012 by Gov. Janice K. Brewer. Prior to the appointment, Justice Timmer was a judge with Division One of the Arizona Court of Appeals from 2000 to 2012, serving as Vice Chief Judge from 2006 to 2008 and as Chief Judge from 2008 to 2011.

Justice Timmer formerly practiced with private law firms in Phoenix, focusing primarily on commercial and employment litigation, and she practiced before state and federal trial and appellate courts, and administrative tribunals. She also tried capital murder cases as a defense attorney and later as a special prosecutor.

Justice Timmer currently participates in many professional and community activities, including the State Bar of Arizona Board of Governors (Arizona Supreme Court liaison), Arizona Foundation for the Handicapped (nonprofit, board vice chair), the Arizona Women Lawyers Association (advisory state board member), the National Association of Women Judges (member, board of directors), City of Glendale Judicial Selection Advisory Board, and membership in the Supreme Court's Commission on Judicial Education and Training (chair).

Justice Timmer has a bachelor's degree from the University of Arizona, and received her juris doctorate degree, magna cum laude, from the College of Law at ASU. While attending ASU, she was a Note and Comment Editor for the Arizona State Law Journal, a member of the National Appellate Advocacy Team and a member of the National Moot Court Team (regional winner). She received the American College of Trial Lawyers Medal for Excellence in Advocacy, and was elected to the Order of the Coif and the Order of Barristers.
